

Teo Suzuki co-founded the artists collective Epic Wayne Press in 2022 with Cyd Levine. It is a group of independent cartoonists who self-publish their own work, which then gets promoted and distributed under the same brand. The group has put out four volumes of an anthology and exhibited at dozens of book fairs across the northeast.

Suzuki graduated from the School of Visual Arts in 2024, and his thesis project CULTURAL RESET #1/6 won the Bob Guglielmo Memorial Award that year. CULTURAL RESET #1/6 was well-reviewed in The Comics Journal and Bubbles Fanzine. It was also nominated for a 2025 Minicomic Award in the science fiction category.

After graduating, Suzuki returned to his thesis class (taught by Dave Roman) with collaborators Cyd Levine and Harper Bryant Shin to give a presentation on Epic Wayne Press, and answer student questions. Suzuki and Levine were also invited to give a presentation on self-publishing to a comics mentorship led by Remy Boydell, courtesy of Athenaeum Comic Art.

Suzuki contributed to the 55th edition of World War III Illustrated, providing art for a comic written by his father, Erik Jacobson. They have collaborated again for the 56th edition as well.

Suzuki was featured on a panel at Furrydelphia 2025 focusing on the overlap between the furry community and the independent comics scene. The panel was hosted by Robyn Ruffin, and also featured Juniper Clark and Yaster Goodman.

Suzuki performed his first public comics reading on April 11th, 2026 as a part of Comic Arts Maine Portland's afterparty.

Suzuki contributed art to I LOVE FURRY, an exhibition curated by Tommy Bruce that was on display at Bunker Projects in Pittsburgh in July of 2026.

Suzuki currently works at the Strand Book Store in Lower Manhattan, where he has provided illustration work in the form of ‘Blind Date With A Book’ covers and union flyers.

Suzuki's comics can be found in independent comic stores like Desert Island, The Beguiling, and Partners and Son. They can also be purchased online via Epic Wayne Press, and some of his comics are available in Canada through Gynoid Distribution.
